Carl Hertz the magician who arrived by the Gaelic will make his first appearance here in the Opera House Tuesday evening. Tickets may be obtained at Wall, Nichols Co.

On Thursday last a highly ornamented piece of paper, which was at the sport of the wind, attracted the attention of Frank Godfrey who upon examination found that it expressed a face value of $1377 and was the pro-perty of H. M. Sewall. It was duly and immediately forwarded to the owner in whose possession it is now supposed to be.

In this issue, under "New Today," appears the card of Morris K. Kechokalole and Louis K. Mc-Grew, Custom House Brokers, accountants, searchers of titles and general business agents. Both gentlemen are wellknown in Ho-nolalu. Mr. Keobokalole was several years in the Interior Department where he made many friends. Mr. McGrew was formerly in the Customs service and at one time was Acting Deputy Collector General.

AT THE THEATRE.

An Excellent Bill by Rosa's Company Last Night.

The Rosa Company gave a most creditable performance Thursday night at the Opera House and it is a great pity that there were not more present to enjoy what was put on the stage. The comedy, "Irish Aristocraey," kept the audience in one continual roar laughter. Jas. F. Post distinguished himself as an Irish man. He is really one of the most natural imitators of the natives of the Emerald Isle that has ever visited Honolulu.

Between the acts came Irving Emery's illustrated songs and pictures with Mr. Emery singing while the various pictures appeared. The organ grinder's serenade and the war pictures were most excellent. Rosa cap tured the audience. Her coon song was remarkably well rendered.

This afternoon there will be a matinee for women and chil dren while in the evening, there will be a complete change of pro-

Grugenhagen's Confections. The confections prepared by the well known San Francisco confectioner, Grugenhagen, are as well known west of the Rockies as those of Gunter of Chicago. No one down town shopping, or from the outside town shopping, from the outside towns ever thinks of leaving home without a box of Grugenhagen's confections.

The firm of J. T. Waterhouse have just placed an assorted stock of these famous sweets, which can be purchased by the pound or by the box.

With the Sick Soldiers.

There are at the present time 107 sick soldiers in the military hospital. Most of these are mild cases but a few are in a bad way.

There is one case of appendicitis and it is probable that an operation will have to be undergone in the near future.

One poor sick fellow received by the Coptic yesterday the news of a very severe accident to his aged mother. She had fallen and broken her hip.
